INFO.

1. Leaders of the dissolved Partido Comunista de Venezuela (PCV) have issued orders to PCV members to remain quiet and not to attempt to initiate any disturbances until after a PCV meeting, planned for July 1950, at which new officers will be elected. Juan Bautista Fuenmayor and Gustavo Machado Morales, members of the National Secretariat of the PCV, at present in hiding, will remain in Venezuela until the meeting.
2. [REDACTED] PCV leaders have proposed that a joint committee be selected to coordinate the activities of the PCV and the Accion Democratica. In the event such a committee is set up, PCV leaders hope to control it, permitting not more than two active AD members on the committee.
